Rita DeVault, Alumni Hall of Fame—Honorary Alumnus Winner 2012

“The students always come first!” That was Rita’s lifeblood, her mantra. As evidence of her efforts, careful guidance and leadership, approximately 1700 students graduated from New Albany High School during her 17 years as a guidance counselor for the New Albany Plain Local Schools. For the first eight years, Rita was the only guidance counselor for the entire district, K-12. In addition, Rita coordinated the NAHS Awards Program for 17 years.

As an overview of incredible service, I offer the following as just some of Rita’s service to and accomplishments for the district: She supervised, facilitated and consulted in writing the Guidance Curriculum; created, supervised and trained personnel for implementation of the Grief Curriculum; facilitated Girls Group (National Merit Scholars) for five years; coordinated all standardized testing – proficiency and the graduation test; and for 17 years, coordinated yearly scheduling for all students in grades 7-12.

For Special Education, Rita was the liaison with students, teachers, parents and the school administration; as chair, she initiated, supervised and helped facilitate training for the High School Intervention Assistance Team; and initiated and created the After School High School

Help Program.

For the Franklin County Safe and Drug Free Schools Consortium, Rita served as the district liaison; she created, coordinated and watched over Youth to Youth (drug free club for high school students); coordinated selection of Middle School students to attend the Winner’s Choice Camp (drug free camp at Camp Greenwood); initiated the Drug Abuse Resistance Education (DARE) program with the Franklin County Sheriff’s Office; initiated, trained and facilitated Parent-to-Parent (parents helping other parents to raise drug-free children) groups; and provided drug and alcohol abuse prevention presentations for district parents.

For the State of Ohio, Rita piloted the Career Passport Program, which provided that all graduating students have a Career Passport: a resume, transcripts, letters of recommendation and stated career goals.

For vocational education at Eastland and Fairfield Career

Centers, Rita was their liaison who coordinated field trips and visitation for middle school students and the application process for students entering the career centers.

Rita went to the Gallia Academy in Gallipolis, Ohio and then to Rio Grande College. She received her Masters from Ohio University and took post-graduate work at OSU, Kent State and Miami of Ohio. She started her counseling career with her first eight years at Heath and then to New Albany.

As Ronda Anderson stated in her letter of nomination, “Rita was such a wonderful mentor to me. I would not be the counselor I am today without her leadership and wisdom. I can think of no greater tribute than to nominate her for the Honorary Alumnus Award from the New Albany High School Alumni Association.”

We agree. We are honored to recognize Rita DeVault. Congratulations and thank you, Rita.
