As we get ready for this event, we are pleased to share a great opportunity for families to purchase books autographed by Jennifer.

To purchase autographed books, please visit the New Albany Intermediate Jennifer L. Holm Book Sale at Cover to Cover.

As the site indicates, please make sure to include your student's name and name of their teacher when you order. This will assist with distribution when the books arrive. Any questions, please contact klink.1@napls.us.
